WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1879

THEY OUGHT TO BE WORKED.

Judge Cary, of the Police Court, says it is amazing to notice the sang froid manner with which the Chinamen who are convicted on charges of selling whisky to Indians, take their sentence to imprisonment, for they never pay a money fine. Those fellows are generally the lowest of their degraded class, and feel fortunate, it appears, in getting good food and lodging at the expense of the county; and nine out of every ten of these scoundrels would prefer to remain in quod all the time on such conditions, to doing anything else. Their imprisonment does not tend to correct any evil for which they are incarcerated. They do not look at it in the light of punishment. Now, to impress them fully and unmistakably with the idea that they are not pampered guests of Ormsby County, but criminals, it would be wise to take them out of their cells every day during the term of their sentence and make them work on the streets and perform other labor for the county, sufficient, at least, to pay for their keeping; then they would view their sentences more in the light of punishment than they do leading a life of comparative ease and comfort; for, in fact, they have better food and shelter than many of the poorer, honest working men. The County Commissioners or City Trustees are empowered to pass an ordinance to that end, and they certainly would be reducing the expenses both of county and city by acting upon this matter at their next meeting. It is not necessary to confine themselves to Chinamen alone, for frequently white vagrants or petty thieves are arrested here whose ambition does not soar any higher than that of the debased Celestial.

THE BERGERS AND SOL SMITH RUSSELL.—Our music loving citizens will read with pleasure this morning, the announcement that the famous Berger Family Concert Company, with the irresistible comedian, Sol Smith Russell, are to appear at the Opera House in this city on Wednesday evening next, the 16th instant. This troupe appeared in Carson during the winter of '76, and the delightful entertainments given by them at that time are well remembered by our citizens. The troupe visits us this season en route to San Francisco, with a company largely increased in numbers and with several artists new in this community. Of the old members, the lady cornet soloist, Miss Anna Berger, and the great comic artist, Sol Smith Russell, will appear as of old; and the new members of the troupe have been selected for their special fitness for the places they are intended to occupy in the programme. It is, perhaps, needless for us to assure our readers that this will be one of the most elegant entertainments of the season, and as the house is sure to be crowded to its full capacity, we throw out a timely hint to the effect that those who contemplate going had better secure their seats in good season.

LIBERAL DRINK.—About 8 o'clock last evening two seedy looking individuals were sauntering along Carson street, and the following scraps of conversation were picked up by a gentleman walking behind them: "Jim, let's take a drink." "Haven't got a shiner; you know I'm d—d good hearted; when I'm in funds I treat every body." "Well, strike that cove standing there," pointing to the door of Dake's Exchange. "For a meal; he may give you a piece, and then we can gin up." "This was an actual occurrence and will convey an idea how imprudent it is to give the ordinary street beggar a cent.

ENCOURAGING.—Joe Cowing, of the Cowing & Zabriskie mine, says that a Virginia firm offered him $20,000 in cash for 20,000 shares of his mine, but he declined it. He showed some rock from that mine yesterday, which will assay $1,000 to the ton.

POLICE COURT.—Ah Sam was convicted yesterday for selling liquor to Indians, and sentenced to the payment of $30 fine. Good food and bedding in the County Jail induced him to accept the alternative of a sojourn of 15 days in that institution.

TENSORIAL.—Antone Borges, the tensorial artist, has fitted up a neat and inviting barber shop adjoining Harris Bros. dry goods store. Antone is an artist in his profession, and those who patronize him once are sure to return.

GLENBROOK NEWS.—From Mr. Charles Emery we learn, that to-day the first wood train of the season will be run from Martin's to the Summit, and that the mills at Glenbrook are getting ready to start up at once.

RETURNED.—John Q. Moore and wife returned from San Francisco yesterday morning. Their case against the C. P. R. R. will come up again in that city next July.

MR. W. E. PETERS, agent for Brown & Prior, of Chicago, is at the Ormsby House, with a fine line of gent's furnishing goods samples.

THE Storey County public schools will have their annual picnic here on the 10th of next month. Like as not it will snow on that day.

BULLION.—The southern stage brought in three bars of bullion, consigned to Wells, Fargo & Co., last evening.

HON. H. R. WHITEHILL is in the city.

THE DEATH OF FRANK KENYON CONFIRMED.

The reported death of Frank Kenyon has been confirmed by his widow, who has written a letter to the editor in charge of his paper, the Esmeralda Herald. When he died the journalistic profession lost one of the most enterprising newspaper men on the coast. Kenyon was not only a good writer, but he possessed business capacity, which, had he retained his health, would have ultimately made him a very wealthy and prominent man.

THE "COLOR GUARD."

An important fact, that should not be forgotten, is that the military allegory, the "Color Guard," will be presented at the Opera House, on Friday and Saturday evenings, the 11th and 12th instants, for the benefit of Carson cemeteries. Preparations are being made to have this play mounted in a first-class style, and the energy, application and patience on the part of the volunteer actors will insure a successful and praiseworthy entertainment. The money that will be raised at the door is to be expended for the good of Carson, and it is to be hoped that the citizens will liberally patronize the show.

A MAGNIFICENT DISPLAY.

As elegant a display of bonnets and similar goods as were ever seen in Carson or elsewhere, was placed on exhibition in the show window of Mrs. Geo. L. Sheibell's establishment yesterday. The goods were of the latest styles and fashions.

OPIMUM SMOKING.—In the face of the vigilance which the authorities are exercising in the matter of stopping the growing vice of opium smoking, there are those who seem to have become so slavish to the vice that they violate the law, be the consequences what they may. It is sad to believe that such is the case, but the statement is irrefutable. Only yesterday were several young men, who ought to hide their faces with shame, seen to emerge from one of the Chinese opium dens. Their countenances indicated that they had been habituated to the practice for quite a while. At the time they came out of the den there was no policeman visible in Chinatown, or they would have been arrested. It would be well to have an officer stationed in that quarter day and night, if for nothing more than to break up the opium trade between the whites and Chinese.

THE CAN-CAN.—No doubt numerous readers of the MORNING APPEAL will be anxiously looking for a thorough criticism of last night's can-can performance this morning. We dislike to disappoint them in their expectations, but the strict moral and religious tone and reputation of this journal precludes the possibility of the publication herein of anything that would even approximate a can-can exhibition. Our male readers, who did not attend, can rest assured, however, that the requisite scantiness of apparel as well as sufficient cotton wadding to produce a ravishing symmetry of limbs were not wanting to make the affair a success in these particulars.

DEPARTURES.—The following passengers went south on the stage yesterday morning: D. E. Corbett, E. D. Corney, O. Reinstein, Mrs. Sullivan, H. Martin, John Summers, John Landers, Ed. Clark, R. Abrahams, J. Griffin, W. H. Dancer, J. Ulrick, J. Lucich, E. Vucovich, Mrs. Wagner, C. P. Harrison, Willie Harrison, Sohn Byrne, J. Rhine, H. M. Stephens, C. A. Bright, H. McDonald.

PEDESTRIANISM.—Walking matches seem to be all the rage in this country, and the mania has even reached Europe now. Where are our much-boasted of Carson walkers? Why don't they come to the front and establish beyond question the superiority of legs over brains? Come, ye nimble pedestrians, let us have a walking match, and not be behind the age.

MUSICAL.—The parties having in charge the musical feature of the Color Guard entertainments, soon to begin at the Opera House, are making remarkably rapid strides in the direction of perfection. The excellence of the music which is promised, will alone be worth the price of admission.

NEW GOODS.—R. Fred Brooks has just received a new stock of toys, bird cages, croquet implements and other things that pertain to a fancy store of any pretensions. He will sell these goods at remarkably low figures.

REGISTER.—At present there are only 15 names on the register. Our city election comes off on the 15th of May. Registration books are now open in the office of Police Judge Cary.

WILL ARRIVE.—The comedian who is to take the character of the "green Dutchman," in the "Color Guard," is expected to arrive this morning, direct from "Bostong."

J. W. VARNY is trying to lease Treadway's Park for the summer, and he thinks by such means he can secure the attendance here of most of the Storey County picnics.

THE City Trustees will meet next Monday, when the rates of city taxation for the year will be fixed.

MR. W. W. FOWLER, business manager for the Berger Family, called at this office yesterday.

SENATOR M. J. FARRELL and wife, of Austin, are in the city.

ARRIVALS.—The following passengers arrived from the south yesterday afternoon: J. H. Vernon, John Codley, Belle Einstein, J. B. Cumming, J. D. McManory, J. Ivancow, M. Welsh, A. Sass, H. C. Ward, Mrs. Trimmer, A. L. Colby, Mrs. M. Neall, H. Ferris, Capt. Taylor, M. Marks.

LATE on Monday night two fast women were amusing themselves, in front of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office, by tantalizing a poor, imbecile boy. To use their own expression, they were "having a high old matinee." The affair was disgraceful, even for them.

PASSOVER.—The Jewish holiday of Passover began on Monday night, and will last one week. This holiday is celebrated in commemoration of the emancipation of the Jews from Egyptian slavery, and their passage across the Red Sea.

MR. C. F. REYNOLDS, the efficient photographer, late of Virginia, has taken up his permanent residence in this city. Mr. Reynolds is a pleasant gentleman and will surely be made welcome here.

EXAMINATION.—The schools of Miss Emlyn Walter and Miss Belle Ryan, two of the most efficient and painstaking teachers in the department, will be examined to-morrow.

THE stockholders of the Cowing & Zabriskie mine mean business, and are going to show up what there is in the ground as soon as money and muscle will permit.

FOR a good drink, fine cigar and the sight of a pleasant, smiling face behind the bar, go to Dake's Exchange, opposite the Capitol building.

THE flower bed borders in Capitol Square promise to look very beautiful during the Spring and Summer.

THE Cowing & Zabriskie Mining Company are going to open an office in the Corbett Block.

THE weather was pleasant yesterday, but still overcasts came in quite handy.

MRS. THOMAS NYE arrived here from San Francisco yesterday morning.

AT RENO.—Judge S. D. King is holding court in Reno at present.

CON. VIRGINIA has declared a dividend of 50 cents per share.

ILL.—Deputy Sheriff Elstner's son is quite ill.

STOCKS were up a little yesterday.
